Entrance fees for all the sightseeing listed in each program are based on the tariffs of May 31, 2008, which are subject to change. If the entrance fees in Beijing and in other cities are raised in 2009, BTC will charge the difference accordingly, and we will inform you at least 3 months ahead.

- (L) = Chinese Lunch en route in the selected restaurant with a glass of soft drink
- (D) = Chinese Dinner en route in the selected restaurant with a glass of soft drink
- (SD) = Chinese Special dinner with soft drinks & local wine
- Hotels and flights listed in our programs are subject to change due to un-foreseen reasons and we reserve the right to use similar hotels & flights and to cancel certain departures, if some big events take place, such as F-1 Race in Shanghai
- Hotel rate is based on twin-sharing in all hotels (2 persons sharing a twin-bedded room). Price p/p for a triple room is the same as twin sharing (a roll-away bed will be added in a twin room to form a triple room in all hotels in China). Request for double room or connecting rooms depends on availability at each hotel.
- Extra night rate includes breakfast at the hotel. BTC reserves the right to use other hotels for the extra nights, if the requested hotel cannot be confirmed. We will keep you informed, should this change occur.
- Our price is based on 2 passengers. A single traveler can be accepted, if the requested departure date has other passengers signed up, and the rate for this single passenger will be: package rate + single room supplement + 45 USD (for the difference of arrival & departure transfers).

- Please make sure your clients are fully aware that our special programs are not private tours. We group passengers who signed up for the same tour together and only local guide service is provided in each city. Passengers are from different English speaking countries with different cultures and mentalities, and their expectations for our tour values may be quite different. Each group size may vary from 6-36 passengers.
- We will keep you informed you if a specific departure is fully booked. If the hotel is fully booked, we will use other hotels and adjust our selling price accordingly. Each departure will be closed 21 days prior to arrival date. Additional 40 USD p/p will be charged for late bookings as special handling fee, if space is still available within 21 days
- Your tour order should include the following correct information:
 1. Passengers' passport names and passport numbers (not needed for BTCCITBJS09);
 2. Passengers' arrival/departure flight information (flight number & time). We will not be able to provide the transfer service if wrong arrival information is provided or if passengers changed their flight without noticing us or if they missed their original flight.
- On arrival day, our guide will wait and meet your clients outside the Airport Customs with a welcome sign: (BTCCIT Best & Special) in pink color (size 20 x 16 inches). After claiming their baggage and going through the Customs, passengers should look for our guide holding the sign. If passengers need to spend more time inside the baggage claim area to look for their checked baggage, they should find our guide first and let the guide know about your problems.
- Please advise your clients not to go with strangers who are not from BTCCITS. If passengers cannot find our guide in the crowd, they can call our Duty Manager for help. In case passengers missed the arrival transfer, they can take a taxi to the hotel on their own. Taxi cost is about 200 RMB in Beijing and 320 RMB in Shanghai from Pudong Airport.
- Voluntary non-usage of hotel accommodations, tour features or services in our package programs are not refundable or exchangeable for other accommodations, services or tour features.
