19 November – Ho Chi Minh City

Arrive Ho Chi Minh City at 10:10 p.m. (flight via Hong Kong). Transfer to Equatorial Hotel or similar.

20 November – Ho Chi Minh City

Breakfast at hotel. Today our city tour takes in the city's bustling Chinatown and begins with a visit to the Thien Hau Temple, from where you will take a cyclo ride; the most appropriate and unusual way to explore Cholon, literally meaning 'big market'. The ride will take you to the lively Binh Tay Market. Then head to Saigon for the visit the major sights of colonial Ho Chi Minh City: the Notre Dame Cathedral, Old Saigon Post Office, Dong Khoi Street (formerly Rue Catinat), Continental Hotel, Opera House and City Hall. Lunch at An Vien restaurant.

Afternoon: Ho Chi Minh City has more to offer than meets the eye. Step off the beaten track a little and take a stroll to the oldest quarter of the city (car at your disposal if you should need it). Start by visiting the peculiar Dan Sinh Market, the only market where you can still find military cast-offs from the Vietnam War, and if you look hard enough, relics from the French Indochina era. Follow a typical street to reach the Beaux-Arts Museum, a superb neo-colonial building home to various modern arts. Amateurs might want to explore the art galleries surrounding the museum which are of some interest. A well-kept secret is the Antiques Street (Le Cong Kieu), where genuine antiques are mixed in with genuine fakes: Aladdin oil lamps, carved wooden chests, Marelli copper fans, opium pipes, abacuses, etc. A visit in Saigon would not be complete without a taste of Ho Chi Minh City's best ice cream - Fanny's, a quaint little parlor with a French atmosphere and wonderful ice cream - before exploring on foot the trendy boutiques on Ton That Thiep Street. Overnight in Ho Chi Minh City.

21 November – Ho Chi Minh City

Breakfast at hotel. Depart to Cai Be, deep in the Mekong Delta. Board the Cai Be Princess junk boat and start the tour with the visit of the colorful Cai Be floating market. Follow with a visit of some locale home factories that produce rice paste, rice pop corn and coconut candies. Cruise then to evergreen islands among the Mekong River through large networks of meandering rivers, crisscrossed with countless arroyos. Lunch at Le Longanier restaurant. Then cruise to Vinh Long and discover beautiful landscapes along the river and observe the typical Mekong Delta rural life. Overnight in Saigon

22 November – Ho Chi Minh City / Nha Trang

Breakfast at hotel. Free morning. Afternoon flight departing 2:00 p.m. arriving Nha Trang 3:30 p.m. Meet on arrival and transfer to the beach resort Sofitel Vin Pearl with the rest of the day at leisure to enjoy the facilities of the resort and the beach itself.

23 November – Nha Trang

Breakfast at hotel. Boat tour to the islands in Nha Trang Bay including visit to the aquatic centre, fresh seafood lunch and options for swimming and snorkeling / diving from the boat. Evening transfer into town for dinner at a local restaurant. Overnight in Nha Trang.

24 November – Nha Trang / Ho Chi Minh City

Breakfast at hotel. Free morning. Afternoon transfer to airport for 4:00 p.m. flight to Ho Chi Minh City. Transfer to Caravelle Hotel. Overnight.

25 November – Ho Chi Minh City / Hong Kong

Breakfast box at check-out. Transfer to airport for flight UA 862 departing 6:05 a.m. arriving Hong Kong 9:40 a.m. Jetfoil to Macau Pier via Hong Kong pier.
